

December 4th 2009

Dear parents and carers,

We have had a busy week in school preparing for the Christmas Concert. Classes have been working hard and we have had a full school rehearsal of Snowmen at Sunset this week. Please remember the concert is next Tuesday - December 8th at Christ the Cornerstone Church at 2pm. We look forward to seeing you there.

Oily Cart - Theatre Visit

On Wednesday a group of students went to the Lyric Theatre in Hammersmith to see a production of 'Christmas Baking Time' by the Oily Cat Theatre Company. We all had a fantastic time and enjoyed the interactive performance a lot - it reminded us of some of our cooking session in school with lots of flour going everywhere!

Bluebells are Class of the Week

Bluebells pupils are quite a lively group. Here is Morayo having fun in the new soft-play room. She loves bouncing on the trampette.

In Bluebells class we have been learning about shapes this term. Chinar climbed through the round tunnel.

Lewis helped to make this fish for a display in school. He enjoyed spreading the glue and choosing colours to decorate his fish.

In Science we have been investigating things that make a noise. Nancy found the chimes in the sunroom and we all enjoyed the music she played on them.

We all enjoyed playing with old fashioned toys as part of our History lessons. Rima particularly liked a musical toy.

We have also had fun investigating different colours and painting. Holly definitely had fun with the greens, yellows and oranges!

Christmas Fayre

Thank you to those of you who all came along and supported today. We all had a fun time and especially enjoyed the visit from Santa. Photographs will be included in next week's letter. Remember raffle tickets can be purchased until Tuesday December 15th when the raffle will be drawn after our school Christmas Lunch.

End of Term - Friday December 18th

Please remember that school closes for the Christmas holidays at 1:30pm on Friday December 18th. Everyone is welcome to our special Christmas assembly at 10am on that day.

The spring term starts for pupils on Tuesday January 5th.

Have a good weekend everyone

Ruth
